From the VP and Program Chair . . .

Tom, N6JOJ

Thanks to those who attended our annual Christmas party. Many thanks to Gayle and Mike and John and Denise for all their hard work setting up the party and for all of the work Bud did in securing the prizes.

Sorry to say that the Visalia DX convention has been called off. I think it is best thing to do at this time. hope to see some of you in Yuma on the 18th and 19th of February.

The next SDDXC meeting will be in person at Elijah's Restaurant. Hope to see you there on February 23rd.

Mike, NA6MB. Gayle, K6GO

Tom, N6JOJ. Denise, XYL

Holiday Party December 19th at Fiddler's Green

The picture may be of interest to club members. It is the QSL cards I won at the Christmas party. Should be enough for the rest of my life! They were wrapped in the paper the cards are sitting on... so nice I don't want to throw it away.

Might be good press for the Gennady Treus, UX5UO who contributed the gift certificate to the club for the party. Web site: ux5uogsl.com

SDDXC Bulletin is Back

By: Bob, K9RHY

Have you flown recently? No question about it, flying (and DXpeditioning) are BACK. My $0.02 says we should keep our ears perked up for possible New Ones in the Caribbean (Barbados, BVI), the Pacific, Eastern Europe (Ukraine) and others. We may see deletions in the Pacific as well as the USGS asserts greater authority.

IOTA chasers may see an avalanche of new ones.

But don't hold your breath for the DPRK (Noth Korea) to be added to the DXCC list anytime soon.

This edition of the SDDXC Bulletin is a bit short of editorial content as your Editor works to get the Bulletin up to data. I lost a few months, but (the Good Lord Willing and the Creek Don't Rise) I'll be able to bring the Bulletin up to date quickly.

Until then, VERY 73 and GOOD DX to all.
